Dedication and Acknowledgements

This book is dedicated to all parents who wish to see their children succeed. And also to the two most beautiful children in the world: Alexandra and Lauren.

I also want to thank all those who gave me honest criticism and encouragement especially Kamechia Myles-Coltrain and the Jennings clan (Craig, Ann, Chad and Eva) who really gave much more than I could have ever hoped for.

And finally I must acknowledge Jerry Corley who is a professional stand-up comic and comedy writing teacher. He helped remind me that a writer needs to write – every day!
